ON AN ESPRESSO WITH... DR ANDREAS BOVENSCHULTE

Dr Andreas Bovenschulte, born in 1965, studied law at the University of Bremen between 1987 and 1994. Between 1995 and 1998, he had a position as research associate there; during this time, he did his doctorate in local law. Subsequently, professional career steps followed as a trainee, at Bremen Online Services, as mayor of Weyhe – and now he has been President of the Senate and Mayor of the Free Hanseatic City of Bremen for one year. Read here what our prominent alumnus thinks about the university today. Click here to read the interview

CORNELEA HAASNER – NEW STAFF MEMBER AT OUR ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

Since September 1, Cornelea Haasner is our new full-time staff member at the administrative office. During and after her studies in Cultural Sciences at the University of Bremen and an apprenticeship in the field of event management, she has already been working for different cultural institutions such as the Theater Bremen, the Bremer Philharmoniker, and the Deutsches Tanzfilminstitut. For the last eight years she has been in charge of the administrative office of the Verein für Förderer und Absolventen (VFA) of the DAV. “We are excited to have gained a specialist in association affairs in Ms. Haasner!” said Alumni Executive Director Derk Schönfeld.

PLACES WHERE YOU NEVER GO HUNGRY

For Farhana and Fahmida it is all about instincts and love, about very elementary feelings when they talk about food. It is a way of life. Food culture in Germany? The two master students from Bangladesh and Pakistan prefer to talk about literature, environmental protection, and other reasons why they came to Germany. In Bremen they represent the students from their two home countries, about one hundred from Pakistan and more than 150 from Bangladesh. Quite a few. And that is not the only thing that takes us by surprise when we meet. Read more

ONLINE EVENT: KULTUR VOR ORT IN GRÖPELINGEN

Feuerspuren is the festival of the multilingual art of storytelling in the Bremen district Gröpelingen. At nearly twenty locations – in the street, at the laundromat, the tearoom, the hairdresser's, the bike shop, the mosque, and the library – almost 7,000 guests experience more than one hundred storytellers each year. The festival is organized by the association Kultur vor Ort. Together with board member Dr. Lutz Liffers, who is an alumnus as well, we would like to introduce the multifaceted work of Kultur vor Ort in Gröpelingen, on Tuesday, October 6th, at 6pm.
